JOB TITLE: YOUNG AMBASSADORS PROGRAMME CONVENOR

JOB SUMMARY

Promote exchange visits between young adults in the age range 18 to 25 with the objectives of:

- Exposing children to different cultures, lifestyles and histories
- Building friendships and close relationships across continents
- Developing confidence, trust and international understanding

so that on return to their home country, they will be Ambassadors for the Round Table Family.

RESPONSIBLE TO

International Relations Officer (IRO)

RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

- Liaise with the International Convenor (Chair of the Association) and individual country YAP convenors to ensure the smooth running of the YAP for 41 Club GB&I
- Through following the agreed selection criteria, ensure the Ambassadors representing 41 Club GB&I overseas are suitable and that 41 Club GB&I benefits
- Organise and manage an appropriate tour for youngsters coming to GB&I
- Improve the perceptions by promoting the benefits of YAP across GB&I through input into National AGM, National Council meetings and 41 Club communications (Magazine. Newsletter, etc).

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Skills and Knowledge

Essential

- Ability to build relationships across generations – with 41 Club GB&I members, 41 International members and Young Ambassadors.
- Understand the details of the international YAP and how best to implement it for the benefit of 41 Club GB&I.
- Ability to organise and the resilience to undertake a tour of GB&I annually for circa 10 Young Ambassadors.

Key Activities

- Organise an appropriate tour for youngsters coming to GB&I
- Seek out and select youngsters on to tours around other countries.
- Liaise with the International Convenor and individual country YAP convenors